

SHORT TERM & PART-TIME ASSISTANT TEACHER

The International School of Krakow

The International School of Krakow (ISK) was founded in 1993. It is an independent, not-for-profit school that provides a world-class education for children from 3 years old to university entrance. Beautifully situated just outside the Krakow city limits, our spacious campus provides a quiet green setting with fresh air and with woods just across the street.

The International School of Krakow is searching for a One to One Assistant Teacher to work directly with a female secondary student with Down Syndrome/cognitive disability. The position will start between March 23rd and April 27th (depending on when the current employee starts her maternity leave) and end on June 18th. The hours are 12:00-15:30 Monday through Friday. The assistant teacher will support the student in special classes that are led by another teacher (drama, art, music, etc), and 1:1 help the student perform jobs (copying, cutting, typing, etc) as well as play games with her to increase her social skills and use of language. Materials are all provided, with no planning necessary.

Must have:

- Strong English
- Good attendance record
- Either a university degree or working towards a degree
- Positive attitude toward the inclusion of people with disabilities

Desired:

- Experience working with people with disabilities
- Teaching degree
- Written & spoken fluency in English

This is a great opportunity to get your foot in the door at ISK which is a desirable place to work. This may be a great opportunity for a university student who will soon graduate with a teaching degree.

Please submit your CV and Cover letter (In English) to atucker@iskonline.org
